5. MISCELLANEOUS

a. CINCNORAD SUBMITTED COMMENTS TO JCS CONCERNING THE DIRECTOR OF DEFENSE RESEARCH AND ENGINEERING REPORT ON WARNING AGAINST BALLISTIC MISSILES, DATED 17 SEPTEMBER 1962. THE SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS WERE SUPPORTED BY NORAD. HOWEVER, HE STATED THAT HE DID NOT AGREE WITH THE IMPLICATION IN THE REPORT THAT U. S. HARD MISSILES CONSTITUTE AN INVULNERABLE FORCE; AND THAT WARNING IS OF DECLINING IMPORTANCE AND ACTIVE DEFENSE IS UNNECESSARY FOR OUR RETALIATORY FORCE.

CINCNORAD FURTHER STATED THAT THE INVULNERABILITY OF FLEET BALLISTIC MISSILE FORCES CANNOT BE ASSURED INDEFINITELY AND THAT ACTIVE DEFENSE OF OUR STRIKE FORCES, PARTICULARLY THOSE THAT MIGHT CONSTITUTE A RESERVE IS NECESSARY FOR CONTINUATION OF A CREDIBLE DETERRENT POSTURE. HE CONTENDS THAT THE ROLE OF THE MANNED AIRCRAFT WILL BE EMPLOYED TO FULFILL MANY WARTIME REQUIREMENTS AS FAR AS THE FUTURE CAN BE FORESEEN, AND AS LONG AS MANNED AIRCRAFT ARE ESSENTIAL TO THE EFFECTIVE PROSECUTION OF WARFARE ACTIVE DEFENSE WITH EARLY WARNING WILL BE ESSENTIAL TO THE PROTECTION OF THESE FORCES.
